We had a good shower Sunday afternoon—the first real rain in five weeks. There was more rain fell south and west of town than there was here, while at Pilot Knob the dust was scarcely laid. It was only a local shower but the indications are good for more rain. Let us hope the drought is terminated.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the A. J. Sheahan Granite Company was held at the Company's office in Graniteville last Monday morning. The old directors and officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. The business of the past year was quite satisfactory and the outlook for the next twelve months is said to be most encouraging.

Our genial bachelor Assessor, John I. Marshall, hid himself to St. Louis the other day and it was reported that he had gone to take unto himself a wife. He returned home the first of the week but brought no bride with him and vehemently denies the impeachment that he has become a Benedict. The outlook is promising for the future, we believe, however.

The Bismarck mill was sold last Friday to the Fredericktown Milling Co. The new company is composed of Messrs. Gudgeon, Anthony, Smith and Davis of Fredericktown, Wm. Trauernicht of Iron Mountain and O. W. Ramsey of this city. The price paid $8000. A Mr. DeGuire of Fredericktown will be the manager and Fremont Bess of this city the miller.

The editor is indebted to his young friend, Miss Edna L. Summa, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugo Summa, St. Louis, for an invitation to attend the Commencement Exercises of Hosmer Hall, St. Louis, to be held in the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Thursday evening, June 4th, at 8 o'clock. Miss Edna is a member of the Class of 1914. We heartily congratulate her and hope her future may be most happy.

John B. Turner, son of the late Gen. John W. Turner, was run down and fatally injured by an automobile at Delmar Boulevard and Clara Avenue, St. Louis, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Turner and Miss Blanche were called to St. Louis from Arcadia that afternoon. The deceased was 34 years of age, married, and has two children. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many valley friends in their sorrow.

Judge E. M. Dearing, Stenographer C. T. Jarvis, O. L. Munger, J. H. Raney and A. T. Brewster drove through from Iron Mountain Sunday. In conversation with Mr. Munger, among other things, he informed us that the road which Mr. Hunt has been so deeply interested in improving between Lesterville and Hogan is in fine condition and that automobiles can travel over it safely—Centerville Outlook.

County Superintendent Burwell Fox has come out as a candidate for Collector. Things are going to be interesting in Democratic county politics here this year, for there is evidently a revolt going on against the closed door and lead-pipe pinch methods that have prevailed in the party management during the last sixteen years. Go to it boys, ask for what you want and insist on getting a show.—Pototol Journal.

I announce with pleasure the candidacy of Harry B. Jones for the position of Presiding Judge of the County Court. He has been a resident of the county for forty years—a great part of the time a citizen of Pilot Knob; is exceptionally equipped mentally and by experience, and is of unquestioned probity and good judgment—just such a man as the county's administration needs. On these grounds his nomination and election ought to be certain.

Two young men from Flat River stole out on last Thursday Dr. Keith's automobile and passed through Boone Terre, picked up two young lady friends and journeyed to St. Louis. On their return they came safely as far as the bridge across Big River and the Desloge road and there the car caught fire and was completely consumed in a few hours. Dr. Keith of Flat River passed through town Friday to look at the burned parts and found that the car which is valued at $2700 was completely destroyed.—Farmington Times.

At the City Council meeting Monday Wm. Trauernicht was the only person submitting a bid for the $50,000 bonds which are to be issued for street improvement. Mr. Trauernicht of fered to take the bonds at par provided he is allowed a commission of $200 for printing the bonds and other expense incident to making the issue. The ordinance provides that the interest on the bonds are payable here. An endeavor will be made to change this so as to make the interest payable in St. Louis. To make this change it may be necessary to enact a new ordinance.

Judge Wm. A. Townsend this week announces as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge of the Western District of Iron County. Judge Townsend has filled this position the past two years and has proven himself a careful and painstaking officer. On the record he has made his friends insist that he is entitled to a re-nomination and election.

The neighboring little city of Piedmont has made a ten-strike in becoming a member of the Mid-West Associated Chautauques, a circuit which embraces several of the larger cities of the State. The program includes lectures of international celebrity, and musical organizations and entertainers famous throughout the country. Adult season tickets, $2.00; Children, 8 to 14, $1.00. The Chautauque opens June 21st and continues six days, with two sessions daily. You can get tickets by writing to any Bank or Business House in Piedmont, or to B. French, Secretary, Piedmont, Mo.

The Pilot Knob school board has been in a dead lock the past month or more over the election of teachers for the ensuing year. Three members of the board Messrs. Phalan, Miller and Janke, are in favor of re-employing the teachers who taught the past year, R. E. Marshall and Miss Essie Tolleson. The three other members of the board, Messrs. Schleuter, Maury and Koehler, want to employ James McCallum of Madison county and Miss Virgie Maury of Pilot Knob and there you are. Prof. Marshall says that unless the board soon makes a choice he will withdraw from the contest. Pilot Knob has an eight months' school. The principal's pay is $75 a month, the primary teacher gets $50 a month.

Rev. H. G. Colwell, of St. Louis, Secretary of the Missouri Baptist Assembly, was a valley visitor Saturday. He spent most of his time on Arcadia Heights and was most agreeably surprised at the many improvements that had been made since he was here last summer. Three attractive private bungalows have been completed and the four Assembly bungalows are well under way. The big reservoir and other improvements are in progress. Mr. Colwell says the 1914 Assembly promises to excel all that have gone before. Just at present, though, he is more interested and enthusiastic over his own household than anything else. A baby boy arrived at the Colwell home seven weeks ago, and, of course, there never was one just like him. Mr. Colwell, wife and baby leave St. Louis this week on a three weeks' visit to relatives in Loveland, Colorado.

"Uncle" Chris Osterle, of St. Louis, spent a few days with Farmington relatives and friends the past week. Prior to last year Mr. Osterle had been in the mercantile at Middlebrook for fifty years. He was one of the German pioneers of that country and well remembers Iron Mountain before and during its palmiest days. When the Iron Mountain railroad was surveyed through that country in the fifties, he was a young man and remembers piloting the surveying crew on a turkey hunting expedition one day. Although game was very plentiful in those days the average hunter's equipment was so crude that he did not have much better success than the hunter of to-day has with his automatic repeater. Mr. Osterle is nearing eighty but is enjoying very good health. Since the death of his aged companion about a year ago he has been making his home with his son, Fred, in St. Louis. He has many friends here who are always glad to see him.—Farmington News.

Last Sunday evening for two full hours I was free from the cares of earth, being transported into the Land of Music and Song—about the nearest approach to the bounds of heaven mortals are permitted to attain. I had been favored with an invitation to attend a Senior Recital at Arcadia College given by Miss Hildegarde Sellmeyer, assisted by Miss Celeste Grimm, vocalist, and Miss Elizabeth Schulte, accompanist. Miss Sellmeyer is wonderful in her proficiency on both piano and violin; Miss Grimm is as entertaining a vocalist as I have ever heard; while Miss Schulte as accompanist is faultless. With such a combination how could success and pleasure fail to attend? Following is the program:

Polonaise Op. 46, No. 12—MacDowell.
La Campanella—Paganini—Liszt.
Auf dem Wasser zu singen (Vocal Solo)—F. Schubert.
Polonaise Op. 26, No. 1—Chopin.
Concerto in G Minor—Mendelssohn.
Berceuse Op. 57—Chopin.
Sonata, Allegro Op. 10, No. 3—Beethoven.
Die Lorelei (Vocal Solo)—Liszt.
Air Varié No. 7—Violini—De Beriot.
Zikoung—Schubert—Liszt.
Indian Bell Song (Lakme)—Delibes.
Ballade Op. 32—Chopin.
Rhapsodie Honore, No. 12—Liszt.

From the Lead Belt News: "Everything is in readiness for the big Burke and Hobbs revival which begins Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the monster tent East of the Illinois Southern tracks. Preparatory prayer meetings have been held this week in several churches and the nearby towns. The first prayer meeting was held Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian church, Thursday at the Methodist Episcopal church and Friday at the Taylor Avenue Methodist church. At Elvins three large union prayer services were held. The big tent has been arranged with comfortable and substantial seats with backs and the choir platform measures 16x32 feet and can easily be enlarged. The singing of a trained choir under the direction of Rev. Hobbs is to feature equally with big brained, big hearted, big brained evangelist Steve Burke who is aptly called the John Bunney of revivalism. To assist the choir two new pianos have been installed. The lighting arrangements are almost perfect, the ventilation good and the location wholly desirable. The enormous crowds of worshippers will find their evenings more pleasantly spent surrounded as they will be with out door comforts than would their evenings be at home. The tent will be supplied generally with barrels of ice water conveniently located. Burke and Hobbs are too well known in this immediate section of Missouri for it to be necessary to write much about them. To-day they are leaving Kingfisher, Oklahoma where their success has been little short of marvelous. Last Sunday the number of conversions for the day was 171 and up to Sunday, being three weeks, totaled 441. Flat River may expect the revival she needs."

I attended a Recital given by the piano pupils of Miss Irene Marshall last Monday evening in the spacious hall of the Valley Inn. The following program was rendered:

PART I.
Duet—First Regiment March—Misses Elizabeth and Helen Rosentreter.
Quartette from Rigoletto—Messrs. from U. Trovatore—Miss Elizabeth Rosentreter.
Woodland Flowers—Miss Florence Fisher.
Poppyland—Miss Helen Rosentreter.
Bluebird—Miss Maurine Barnhouse.
Soldier's March—Miss Helen Fisher.
The Broken Doll—Miss Dorothy Reese. (Six weeks at the piano).
The Robin's Lullaby—Miss Anna Farrar.
Mamie's Story of Red Riding Hood—Miss Jessamine Woods.
The Piano—Vocal—Mrs. Beatrice DeWeese.
Valse Styrienne—Rhapsodie Honore No. 2—Miss Irene Marshall.

PART II.
Birdie Ball—Miss Maurine Barnhouse.
The Robin's Return—Miss Florence Fisher.
Moonlight Serenade—Crimrose Waltz—Miss Helen Rosentreter.
Gondoliers—Miss Elizabeth Rosentreter.
The Courtin'—Mr. Geo. Link.
Vocal—Springtime: The Nightingale; Mrs. Beatrice DeWeese.
Faisla—Miss Irene Marshall.

We were delightedly entertained for two hours by the efforts of the youthful pupils, whose advancement in the Art Divine is remarkable considering their years. The hall was filled to the limit by an appreciative audience. The selections given, vocal and instrumental, by the older folk, were excellent and gave artistic finish to the entertainment. The recitations, "Red Riding Hood" and "The Courtin'" were well done. I congratulate Miss Irene upon her success as instructress as evidenced by her pupils in the Recital.

The mills of the gods grind slow, yet they grind exceeding fine. In the Court of Common Pleas at Cape Girardeau last Wednesday County Treasurer Thos. D. Jones was awarded $2500 damages for libel against the Rev. Dr. Fuller Swift, former editor of the Arcadia Valley Enterprise and pastor of the First Baptist Church of Iron Mountain. The suit was based on a publication made in the Enterprise some three years or more ago, reflecting on Mr. Jones' honor and integrity in conducting the office of County Treasurer. The Hays Audit & Bond Company of St. Louis, who, it is alleged, supplied Swift with the "facts" on which he based his article, were co-defendants with Swift. The suit was instituted in the Iron County Circuit Court and was first called at the April term, 1911, when the defendants asked for a change of venue and it was taken from here to Stoddard county; from there it was transferred to Ripley county and finally to Cape Girardeau where judgment was rendered as above related. A few days before the Cape Girardeau court convened the Hays Audit & Bond Company compromised with Mr. Jones by paying all costs in the case, paying his attorneys' fees, and giving Mr. Jones $100 for his expense in prosecuting the suit. Fuller Swift did not appear in court and judgment was secured against him by default. How the mighty have fallen! Fuller Swift long since left here for greener fields. It is said that he is now preaching and selling Standard Oil somewhere in the vicinity of Springfield, Mo. Now that the Rev. gentlemen is in trouble, where are the patriots who held up their hands in the time of turmoil? Where the circulators of those lying petitions charging "shortage" against our Democratic officials and praying for an "audit of the books"? Those pure-souled, evil-fearing brethren, it seems to me, ought to come to the rescue of their late chief and apostle of political righteousness and help pay the judgment assessed against him. But just you watch 'em do it!

Missouri Baptist Assembly for 1914.

The railroad company has issued a handsome and attractive folder giving the programme and telling of some of the special features of the Missouri Baptist Assembly which will be held on Arcadia Heights August 4-16, 1914. The following is reproduced therefrom:

Every year the old-timers come back to Arcadia Heights wondering what there is new this year. Last year there were the new college bungalows, the office, the well, and the new east camp ground. This year will find the water system completed, with a fifty-thousand-gallon reservoir and water pipes over the grounds, a new well house, new sanitary toilet arrangements, and four new bungalows belonging to the Assembly, and three new private bungalows. All the new buildings are permanent and fireproof, made of cobbleslones and concrete.

A NEW IRONTON.
Last February and March a great revival came to Iron Mountain, such a turning to God as the Valley never before saw. The Iron Mountain Baptist Church received one hundred and twenty-five by baptism. The little church is transformed. Scores of men who have lived all their lives outside the church are now in its membership. The two Assemblies, with their earnest spiritual atmosphere, prepared the way. The revival in turn has created a new local atmosphere for the summer Assemblies.

GROWTH.
The most striking features about the Assembly has been its wonderful growth. Following is a table showing the increase in attendance:
In 1909 enrollment.....290
In 1910 enrollment.....428
In 1911 enrollment.....643
In 1912 enrollment.....580
In 1913 enrollment.....1425
Last year we expected a thousand. The attendance far surpassed that figure. How many for 1914?

THE LOCATION.
Beautiful and picturesque, but ninety miles south from St. Louis, lies the Arcadia Valley. It is surrounded on all sides by the thickly wooded hills of the Ozarks. On the top of one of the mountains bordering the valley on the north side, is Arcadia Heights, the home of the Missouri Baptist Summer Assembly. The altitude is one thousand feet above the highest point in St. Louis. The grounds are a mile and a quarter from the railway station at Iron Mountain. A road winding through trees and among rocks lead you to the grounds, four hundred feet above the valley.

THE GROUNDS.
On approaching the Assembly park, after passing some private bungalows, the first thing seen on the grounds is the big Tabernacle, where most of the Assembly meetings are held. Around this are grouped the class tents, where meet the morning study classes. Then there is the Assembly office, the William Jewell and Stevens College bungalows, the restaurant, the Woman's building, and the water works. Round about the buildings lies a great colony of tents, where most of the Assembly folks live.
